Return referral to the school counselor by September 26, 2013

Students currently identified as Gifted and Talented do not need to be referred to maintain their current identification. Identified students should only be referred if they wish to be tested for identification in additional subject areas. 5th grade students may wish to test for areas in which they are not currently identified, as middle schools place GT students in GT courses for only those subject areas in which they are identified.
